“ I hadn't talked to Taylor in awhile and went to look her up to see how she was doing only to find out she passed away. I'm so sorry for her family's loss. Taylor and I spent countless nights together talking and hanging out. She was one of the first people to show me around Lansdale when I moved out here and I couldn't be any more thankful to her for that, everybody goes through struggles in life and sadly hers got the better of her, but I'll always remember her for making a dark time in my life a little brighter and her beautiful voice. Rest in peace Taylor, you may be gone but you'll never be forgotten.

“ When you were born you stole my heart sweetie, my first grandchild and I felt closer to you than my own children. I just can't believe that I will never hear your voice or see your beautiful smile again. I have so many beautiful memories of you growing up and I will cherish them forever. I love you peanut and I miss you so very much, but I know we will see each other again in Heaven.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear about Taylor. I was a teacher/mentor to her while she was at Penndale Middle School. I remember having many interesting talks with Taylor. I enjoyed her free spirit and her creative mind. I will always remember her quick wit, her singing, and her great smile! I pray that you find comfort knowing that she is safe and at peace. I will keep Taylor and your family in my thoughts and prayers. God bless you.

“ ayyyy Mrs. Miller, you the math teacher? I had you for homeroom and I was a grade below Taylor!! Let's be real though, not trying to be mean, we all knew this girl was gonna end up ODing or becoming a prostitute. and she did!

“ How dare you say this to Taylor's family - here of all places, you rude, inconsiderate, heartless idiot that needs to go back to school and learn to spell.
