“ Dee Dee was a neighbor when I was just a kid hanging out with Patsy. My parents Pat and Larry shared many good times. I can still see her laughing and sitting on the steps of Carlton Street and just lots of smiles. Hope she is at peace with the many others from better days, Kathy Caldwell Kane.

“ Dee Dee was a part of our Cathedral/Hallahan crew, 18TH & Wood/Carlton Streets. We spent our teen years laughing, crying, sometimes mischievously but grew as close as ‘sisters’ could. She (and Alice) were so kind hearted and true friends. We doubled to our Senior Prom. What a night!!! Memories of standing on the steam vent, huddled together and plotting our weekends. Sometimes, we would ice skate in Penn Center. I pray she is in the loving arms of our Father and joining Margie, Eddie, Franky et al. Alice, I’m currently in Chemotherapy but PLEASE, reach out to me in Facebook Kathleen Williams Brinn. Sending my deepest condolences, love and prayers.
