“ My condolences to the Cummins family. I knew Porky through my mother Rosie (McCrossen) Cinko. And of course the dust bowl, even though I was little at the time. They used to bet on the World Series every year. He was a great person may he rest in peace 🙏🙏

“ I can't express enough how deeply saddened I am to hear about Porky. I met him as a little kid going with my father to the Dust Bowl, then later in life as an ironworker. He's truly a legend. I'm a better man just by knowing him. I hope your family can find peace knowing that he was loved and respected by many. Rest peacefully.

“ A great person to all - especially to my father, his good friend, Jimmy Dugan. A Dust Bowl and Fairmount reunion is likely getting out of hand in Heaven this week 😊

“ May you rest in peace Porky. I could not have asked for a better Grandpop for my children. The love you showered them with is unmeasurable. The look of pride at Samantha's college graduation is a look I will never forget. You were grinning from ear to ear. To have my son follow in your footsteps as a respected ironworker is also something I owe to you. Your legacy will follow him his entire career. What a blessing for my children to have known you, grow up to adulthood having a grandpop like you. You will be missed by so many, but your memory will always be alive.

“ Betty, DeeDee, Alice, Joey and Patsy we extend our heartfelt sympathies to all of you and your families. Because of the intersection of our families I had the good fortune to call Porky a friend. Respected iron worker and truly good human being. A brother to be proud of. Praying you find strength and peace in happy memories.
