“ I came to know Conor when he and my sons started school together at Alpha House. Conor was engaging and animated from the first time you met him.

For those of you who knew Conor you would know that the song "when Irish eyes are smiling " was written with him in mind! He always had a twinkle in his eye, which led you to know that it was imperative to keep an eye close to him.

Conor was so smart, he had an amazing memory for lyrics to songs and for history. Conor knew the presidents and the Vice Presidents in order! When he was at my house I would parade him to every adult And ask him to recite their names! It was amazing!

Conor was full of life and full of goodness. We spent many long days with him and my sons Summer's always included swimming and playing both at our home and at Conor's

They were good memories.

There is an old Indian proverb that says

" on the day you were born, you cried and the world rejoiced, live your life so that when you die, you rejoice and the world cries!

Conor left a lasting mark on the lives of many! Together we should pray for Jeanie, Donnie and Luke because Conor is in heaven, singing the lyrics from some Beatles hit!

Rest in peace Conor James
