

Mrs. Edith Mae D'Angelo

February 26, 1935 - September 15, 2022

Edith Mae O'Brien, passed peacefully on Thursday morning, September 15. Mae was a devoted mother and grandmother and a true friend to many. Her longtime companion of 25 years, Bill Hagan, passed away in 1998.

Loving, kind and funny, Mae's generosity was boundless, and she never hesitated to help others. Known for her social personality as well as her cooking and baking, she never missed an opportunity to welcome family and friends into her home.

Mae loved spending time with her family at the shore. After her retirement devoted her time to her grandchildren, spending much of her time babysitting. Teaching her grandchildren how to bake (mainly her famous pizzelles), countless visits to her swim club, and fun trips to local orchards, restaurants and more.

Mae is survived by her children: Chip D'Angelo (Kathleen Margay), Keith D'Angelo; and her 2 grandchildren: Olivia and Jack D'Angelo. Mae was a wonderful mother and grandmother and valued her family over everything.
