“ I was very sad to hear of Eric's passing. I hope his friends and family will find some comfort in the find memories they have if him. I knew Eric to be kind, honest, funny, intelligent, good, generous, and a true gentleman. I loved hearing his stories and I was amazed at how much life he crammed into his time here on earth. He had so many wonderful experiences, adventures, and memories to share. I will truly miss him but I am a better person from knowing him. Rest in peace Eric. Michael Mazie

“Who loves you, baby?” This was your favorite expression Ricky. I love you too! The news of your passing has really stunned us. Seems I’ve known you all my life. As you walked my Annie down the Gesu aisle at our wedding I was so proud. You were such a great big brother! One day we will see you again. Until then we’ll miss you each passing day. Rest in Heavenly Peace.

“How do you put a lifetime of memories in a few short sentences. Crazy, funny ups and downs, but one thing for sure Pop is that I know you loved me and I loved you. I’m sure gonna miss you. You taught me so much and I’m sure gonna miss hearing your voice. Say hello to Mommy, Pattynn and Ricky for me. God how I miss them. Till we are all together again...I love ya baby ❤️ The last man standing, Helen
