

George B. Drumm

January 2, 2023

On Monday, January 2nd, George Brady Drumm, 80, passed away from interstitial pulmonary fibrosis peacefully and surrounded by family in his current residence in Philadelphia. He was previously a resident of Florida and Connecticut. Born to George and Evelyn Drumm in Bethel, CT, George graduated from Central Connecticut State University with an undergraduate in education. He dedicated his career to the world of education, earning his PhD from UConn and working as a teacher, principal and then superintendent of East Hartford schools. He then dedicated his time training future education leaders as the head of the Education Leadership Program at UConn. Through it all, George kept up his hobbies of running, golf, listening to music and following his beloved Yankees. In 2022, he happily watched his grandsons (Matthew and Andrew Carrier) take over his previously held family record at the Manchester Road Race.

George is survived by his devoted wife, Sharon; his daughter Meghan Carrier and her sons Andrew, Matthew & Colin; his daughter Amanda Drumm; his daughter Briahna and her husband Kevin and their son Calvin; step-son Corey Turner and his wife Kelly and their children Paige, Annabelle and Jacob; and step-daughter Michelle McCoy and her husband Stephen and their children Nora, Claire and Jacqueline. He is predeceased by his son Deron Drumm. He is also survived by his three siblings, Judy Hancock; Carole Rubley and her husband Ron; David Drumm; and his many nieces, nephews and cousins. He is predeceased by his sister Mary Fennessey. Beyond his family, George has had many wonderful friends in his life that he cherished.

No funeral or memorial service is immediately planned. The family will notify loved ones in the future when a service is scheduled. In remembrance of George, donations can be made to the Pat and Jim Calhoun Cardiology Center.

Tribute Wall

“ George B. Drumm

February 03, 2023 at 04:11 AM