

Jennifer Austin

August 8, 2024

Jennifer Austin, formally Donna Carol Green, passed away peacefully on August 8, 2024. She was 81 years old.

Jennifer is predeceased by her father, Irwin Green, and mother, Mildred Green. She received her Bachelor of Arts from Antioch University and her Master of Science in Health Education from Beaver College. Born and grew up in Wildwood, NJ, she lived in California for a short time till she finally settled in Philadelphia, PA.

Jennifer was a caring, witty and smart woman who loved to hear about the lives of the people she loved and remembered every detail of their stories; that's just how much she cared. She was always concerned for the people she loved and wanted to help in any way that she could. She was direct and honest in her opinion of what was right or wrong. She had a sense of humor and knew how to make you smile. She enjoyed traveling; she often went to California to visit her friends.

Her love for the Philadelphia sport teams was unrivaled. She enjoyed watching the Phillies, Eagles and 76ers games when she could. As she grew older, even though she felt she couldn't wear the sports jerseys, you could always catch her wearing a 76ers lanyard or intently watching the games on the TVs at Little Pete's Restaurant in Philadelphia.

She loved her art. The walls of her apartment were filled with original art from the Cheltenham Center of the Arts, sculptures created by artistic friends and pictures of Andy Warhol.

Honoring her wishes, she will be cremated and her ashes taken back to her home town of Wildwood NJ. We ask family and friends to remember her and keep her close to your hearts.

"What we have once enjoyed deeply we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us.” – Helen Keller

“ I got to know Jenny the last 10 years though I knew her years ago when she came to nyc to visit our mutual friend Donna. We went to the Barnes museum together about 8-9 years ago and became constant email pals since. We shared sports (I too like the Eagles and Phillies but after my Mets) but far more politics. That she had an inner core demanding that all people be treated with respect hardly comes near her sincere indignation at mistreatment of minorities or the weak in all societal spheres. She was one of most honest and decent persons I got to know in my 82 years. I shall miss her and hope we meet again
