Fr. Lange, S.J., was the most wonderful person. I worked for Fr. Lange in 1975 at the U of S as his secretary and we maintained contact throughout the years.

His would always be the first Christmas card I would receive. We had many conversations. He was always there I when I needed to talk to him. He was so intelligent and knowledgeable. I greatly admired him.

He will be missed greatly.

Rest in peace Father, you are home now and the angels are all around you.

You will be In my heart and thoughts always,

Janice
