“ *I am so very sorry for your loss. John was a friend for about forty or more years. Since I moved to MN ,we didn't meet up very often, but we had many phone conversations.We last spoke at length earlier this summer and he was his usual optimistic and exuberant self, working hard on many projects here and abroad. His young grand-nieces had become the light of his life. We had exchanged some books over the last year and enjoyed discussions about them. I admired his good soul, bright mind and immense generosity. He was very dedicated to his family. We will truly miss this wonderful person. I know dying was not on his agenda! I only hope it was easy and painless.
With deepest sympathy
