In Loving Memory of Jose E. Aponte

February 17, 1967 – December 25, 2024

Jose E. Aponte, lovingly known as Marcano, was a son, brother, uncle, cousin, and a unique soul who left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him. Born on February 17, 1967, in Paterson, New Jersey, Marcano possessed an independent and resilient spirit that defined his life.

As a son, Marcano was deeply loved by his mother, Carmen Aponte. While life's challenges sometimes created distance, their bond was always rooted in love and care. Carmen cherished the moments they shared and held unwavering hope for his happiness and peace.

As a brother, Marcano shared a connection with his siblings—Jose L., Luz Aida, Zenaida, Belinda, and Carmen "Milly"—that was shaped by childhood adventures, memories, and the complexities of life. Despite life's ups and downs, he will always hold a special place in their hearts. They will forever treasure the laughter, shared experiences, and the unforgettable mark he left on their lives.

As an uncle, great-uncle, step-father, and cousin, Marcano brought light and warmth to those around him. Though their paths didn't cross frequently, he is remembered for his kindness, humor, and ability to bring smiles to their faces when they were together.

Marcano's life was uniquely his own. He faced his struggles with quiet strength and perseverance. He found joy in his love for writing and helping others. Those who knew him closely will remember his gentle kindness, sharp humor, and love.

He is survived by his loving mother, Carmen Aponte; cherished siblings, Jose L., Luz Aida, Zenaida, Belinda, and Carmen "Milly" Aponte; step-children, Jinny, Yesenia, Omar, and Lee Monet; and beloved nieces and nephews, including John, Christina, Jimmy, Crystal, Alexis, Cynthia, Orlando, Jovannie, Amanda, Kayla, Christian, Chase, and Lucas. His memory will forever be held close to their hearts.

As we say our goodbyes, we honor not just the complexities of his journey but also the light he shared with the world. You are loved, you will be deeply missed, and you will always be remembered. Rest in Paradise, Marcano.

Relatives and friends are invited to his funeral service at 11:00am on Friday, January 3rd, 2025 at the Dinan Funeral Home, 1923 Spring Garden Street, Philadelphia PA, 19130. A viewing will be held in the funeral home on Friday morning from 9:00am-11:00am. Interment Greenmount Cemetery, Philadelphia.
