“ Joe (Sonny) was a dear, gentle man. Our mothers were sisters and when we were little Mom would take us often to visit. After his wife died, Sonny lived with his Mother and sister and they helped raise his son Joey. As my Mom and her sisters aged, I would take her to visit her sisters whom she dearly loved. Sonny was an avid Philadelphia sports fan. He would get frustrated with them sometimes, but he remained faithful. His sister, Maryann, took such good care of him. My heartfelt sympathy to Maryann. I'm sure he is with his loved ones in heaven!

“ I have many fond memories of watching football and the Mummers parade with Sonny in recent years. We had many spirited conversation about the Eagles and the Phillies. The man knew his stuff. Rest in peace, Sonny. I will miss you.
