“ Dear Theresa - Your sister was a frequent visitor to our office and it was always fun to watch the two of you together. It reminded me of the strong bond I have with my own sisters, who I don't get to see regularly. I understand the deep loss in losing a sister. My deepest sympathies to you, and your family on her loss.

“ Dear Theresa,

Dear Theresa and Family:

My deepest sympathy:

I sent a pray of sympathy to the Lord up above, to counsel and console you for the loss of your sister. It will be difficult and the pain might feel overwhelming, but remember that God's mercies are everlasting. Just know that she will be with you always, and you will carry her in your heart forever.

“ I was always happy to see Laura pop into the office. Her smile was so real. We shared conversations about how she was doing and she always replied she was doing fine or ok. i share this time of sorrow on a smaller scale than her beloved family and my prayers and thoughts go out to with all of them.
