“ Lillian was a dear friend to my father Joseph Owens. We would see her at 7:30 mass every Sunday and then at Golden Dawn diner. She would often tell us about her trips to the Casino or other outings with friends. Lillian and my father would chat on the phone, go to lunch, take a bus trip to the casino, or a drive to Philadelphia. She was always ready for anything. She was a special lady who enjoyed life.

“ Lillian had such a beautiful spirit! Lillian showed kindness, compassion, and she brought life to any party. She always made us smile and laugh~ what an awesome sense of humor. We absolutely enjoyed the time that we were blessed to have with her. Thank you for allowing us to share time with her. Lillian's relationship with Dave will always be treasured. We love Lil and she will always be with us. If we are blessed, she will be one of our Angels forever looking over us and protecting us. We love you Lil ❤️

“ I am so sorry to hear this. Your mom was a friend to our mother, Eleanor Sanuck. She always spoke of her, Their luncheons, their dinners at Krupas during Lent. I know their class seems to be shrinking, but in our heart they are together again. Eleanor died this past August. Our prayers are with you!
