

Lois T. Cole

January 11, 1940 - April 27, 2023

Cole, Lois T., (Robson), age 83, of Philadelphia, Pa, passed away Thursday, April 27, 2023. She was a graduate of Haddonfield Memorial High School class of 1957 and received her BA Degree from Cabrini College Radnor, PA. Her professional career spanned more than 50 years in the Health Administration field. She became a world traveler late in life and enjoyed England, Italy, France and especially loved Paris. She was also passionate about the Arts and enjoyed music, opera, theatre, and museums. Preceded in death by her parents Harold and Edna Robson and sisters Gail Beasley, Joyce Trout, and brother David Robson. She is survived by her daughter Kelly Greene and her husband Stephen; son Kevin Cole and his wife Karen; and sister Janice Wilcox and husband Brian; brother Terry Robson and wife Rosemarie and many beloved nieces and nephews. Our family respects the wishes of Lois and will not be holding services. Though Lois was a private person, she was a lifelong lover of learning and a mentor to many. She was an important part of her family and community and her loss is deeply felt.
