Margaret "Marge" M.. Terry (nee Woods)

1950 – 2025

Margaret "Marge" M. Terry (nee Woods), of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on July 12, 2025, at the age of 74.

Born in the Cathedral section of Philadelphia, Margaret was a proud graduate of John W. Hallahan Catholic Girls' High School, Class of 1967. She spent her adult life in the Fairmount neighborhood, where she built a home filled with love, faith, and dedication to her family.

Margaret was the beloved wife of the late Philip Terry, a devoted mother to Peter Terry (Jeanne) and Philip Terry, and a cherished grandmother to Dylan. She was also the loving sister of the late Carol Simpson, Mary Alice Jones, Thomas Woods, James Woods, and Jack Woods. She is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Marge found joy in the simple pleasures of life—watching Phillies games, walking her dogs, cooking for her family, attending mass, or spending time at the library. Her warmth, kindness, and quiet strength touched all who knew her.

Relatives and friends are invited to celebrate her life at a funeral mass on Thursday, July 17, 2025, at 10:00 a.m. at St. Francis Xavier Church, 2319 Green Street, Philadelphia, PA 19130. A viewing will be held at the church prior to the service from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. Interment will follow at Calvary

Cemetery, Conshohocken, PA.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Margaret's memory may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, Delaware Valley Chapter.

“ Margie and I shared 12 yrs of Cathedral/Hallahan, vacations in Wildwood, the same birthday month (later in yrs I teased she was ‘older’ -by 5 days). What happy memories! Hanging out at 18TH and Wood/Carlton streets during teens, cyo dances, ‘stalking’ the Warwick Hotel hoping to catch a glimpse of the Beatles, the concerts in the Civic Center and so much more. Margie was a true and loyal friend with a huge heart. Rest peacefully, my dearest friend, in the loving arms of our Father. 🤍🙏😊

“ Marge was one of the greatest neighbors on Judson street as a kid growing up, she was always a pleasure to talk to , she would sit on her step and talk to the neighbors my grandparents and Mrs Reilly her next door neighbor. She graduated high school the year I Was born but we are Sisters forever because of John W Hallahan , you will always be thought of with love and kindness and respect and smiles . It was an honor to know her .

“ So sorry for your loss. I knew Margie from Carlton Street she was a sweetheart. We saw a lot of each when i lived in Fairmount. Her and my sister-in-law Pat were such good friends. Margie will surely be missed.
