“ To Marge, I was "the parrot man." She remembered who I was on the couple occasions our family was able to visit, even though she couldn't recall my name. The last time we were able to stop by, she even surprised me with a goodbye kiss on the cheek! She made me feel what it must be like to have a loving affectionate mom, even though I was already 50 year so old. Marge was so sweet, so patient, so faithful - never a complaint. I'm so glad she's finally home with her Chief and her Jesus. I miss you Marge and will be praying for everyone in your family. Love, William, Wendy & family.

“ *Dear Jordan Family,
Marge was one of my dearest friends. Even though life had us miles out hearts were knit as one.She was always encouraging lovingly and never complaining what life was thrown her way. I'll miss my dear friend much but know I will see her again someday. Sandy Walters.*

“ Dear Tim and all the family - your Mom and Grandmom was always kind, cheerful, and ready with a smile and laugh. I am sad for your loss. I will never forget her deep theological instruction for relationships: "It takes two to Tango." Our hearts are with you and your family, Jonathan, Donna, and Alyssa Marie Bach

“ Mrs. Jordan was an amazing woman. She lived Christ everyday and was a blessing to anyone who came in contact with her. I remember when we sat at the table with her for a bob jones college event at a hotel by the phila. airport. She had asked for a cup of tea and as it always seems to go, they never got it for her. I made sure they got her 1 but she never complained and always cared more about other's than her own comfort. We will all miss her. Our loss is Heaven's gain. I will not mourn her but celebrate the joy of meeting and knowing her.

“ When I was a preacher boy, she was like a mom to us. She defended us from Chief's strict demands. She was such an encouragement in my life as a young man and even in ministry. When Jessica and I would see her at CBC, she was just a blessing to be around. Chief probably had the biggest influence in my ministerial life and it couldn't have happened without Marge by his side! Prayers for the family!

“ What an amazing Grandmom & Great-Grandmom! She was selfless, & would do anything for anybody! After my divorce, she helped me out financially every month for a long time. I have so many wonderful & funny memories of her! My kids are so blessed that they got to enjoy their great-Grandmom for 15 & 11 years! They will always have great memories of her. What a gift! I am so glad she is in heaven & pain free. She will be missed greatly! We love you Grandmom! Love - Jill, Madison, & Lincoln

“ Mrs. Jordan was a tremendous example and encouragement to me and to many other ministry wives. She always served with a smile. My husband and I enjoyed many delicious Sunday dinners around the Jordan dinner table when we were at Calvary Baptist Church for evangelistic meetings. Heaven is richer now indeed for her arrival and her reunion with her Savior and her beloved husband. I am thankful to have known her.
