Frank was the love of her life but nothing compared to her fierce pride, love and devotion to her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren who were her complete and utter joy. She was an active member of St. Stanislaus Catholic Church. Mary put her faith above all, followed by the love for her family. Always the caregiver, Mary was known by all to put others' needs above her own. She was always happiest surrounded by family and loved to sing with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She loved holidays, and going on vacation-especially to Ocean City, NJ where so many wonderful memories were created with family and friends. She and Frank enjoyed traveling and visited many places and countries. Mary was an avid sports fan, particularly of the St. Joe's Hawks as her husband was an alumni, a tradition of following the Hawks that began when she and Frank were dating and continued after his death. Mary also followed the Eagles and the Phillies, cheering her favorite teams on. Mary loved music, and singing and her home would always be filled with music and joy. She was an avid reader and enjoyed writing, and gardening. She was very attentive to those she would meet, and you could be certain she included you in her daily prayers and devotions.

“ Mom was related to Sister Mary Antoine of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament. Sister was her aunt. Mother was especially thrilled when Sister was permitted to visit and chose our family. It was a very holy and prayerful time for all of us. Mother and her brothers and sisters enjoyed visits to their Aunt in Bensalem and when I came along I got to visit as well. Mom loved being united in Christ.

“ In addition to her delicious cooking and baking and all of her childcare and homemaking, my Mother had a career outside of the home. In her early years, she was a legal secretary for The Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. (My parents wedding Mass was con-celebrated by four or five priests from the Tribunal.) She taught CCD. She worked in The AM Kulp school library and for a local preschool. She was a Girl Scout Troop Leader. She also worked for GE.

In her later years, in addition to my being a Sunday visitor, she and I had a standing 7:00 pm appointment to visit on the telephone and pray. She told me every night she was glad she had me to talk to and to pray with and that she loved me. I think we especially loved Monday night rosary with the Pontifical Mission of the Archdiocese that began during the pandemic. Sunday and 7:00 and rosary will never be the same. I miss her greatly.
