

Maryann Widecan

May 30, 1940 - April 2, 2025

Maryann Widecan, beloved sister, aunt, and friend, passed away on April 2, 2025. Maryann was born May 30, 1940, and raised in the Fairmount area of Philadelphia by Joseph and Mary (Niezgoda) Widecan.

Maryann worked at the Philadelphia NASDAQ stock exchange until she retired early to care for her mother. She loved being around people and enjoyed spending time visiting and conversing with her family, neighbors, and friends. She also enjoyed shopping, dining out, decorating her home, and taking weekend trips to the shore. She is predeceased by her brother Joseph, affectionately known as Sonny, whom she adored and has missed every day since his passing.

Devoted aunt of Joseph (Bernadette), great-aunt of Joey and Bern, and great-great-aunt of Carter and Callen. She is also survived by many cousins.

Relatives and friends are invited to her prayer service at 11:00am on Thursday, April 10th at the Dinan Funeral Home, 1923 Spring Garden Street, Philadelphia PA. The family will receive friends on Thursday morning at the funeral home from 10:00am-11:00am. Interment Calvary Cemetery, Conshohocken.

“ My memories of Maryann were that of a very generous person who loved cooking, Christmas and above all her family. Her generosity was second to none. In recent years I made an annual visit to see her on New Years Day. We visited, talked and watched the Mummers Parade - Old School Philly. It was one of the highlights of the holidays for me. Rest in Peace Maryann. I will miss you....Eddy.

“ Maryann was a close first cousin to my sisters and I. When we were children, my mother would frequently visit her sister Mary and we would visit with our cousin Maryann. It was always a happy time. Maryann often took meals to her aunts and neighbors who were elderly and lived close to her in the neighborhood. Though her father died young, Maryann took care of him and her mother and brother when they were sick until they passed. When she was alone, my sisters and I kept close contact with her by phone and visited when we could. She had many friends that she counted on during that time, and they were faithful to her. She's in our hearts and prayers.
