“ A great man was laid to rest today, Pasquale. 🥹 Pasquale was a great provider, strong but more importantly had a big heart. Mrs. Armenti & Anna were the apple of his eye. So we're Eva, Soupbone, Aunt Carmella, Uncle Elvis & all their children & grandchildren. I have so many fond memories of being in the Armenti's home. U we're always welcomed & Mrs. Armenti was the best cook! Pasquale was funny! Rest In Peace, Pasquale 🙏 Love u, Anna 🥰

“ *Dearest Anna and family ,
Saddened to learn this news of your father's passing. I always enjoyed talking to him when he was sitting out in the sunshine on the bench. He always asked my mom how she was feeling as we walked around the block. He always had a dog treat in his pocket and my dog would wiggle for him until she got one. If he didn't have one in his pocket he would go to his trunk to get some. I will always remember these happy visits with him on your street. May he be at peace in the sunshine of heaven, reunited with your mom. Sending love and light to you. Christy Muldoon, mom MaryJane (Mevie) and the Muldoon family*
