“ There will always now be an empty place at our 12:15 p.m. Mass at St. Andrew's Church without Patrick McGuigan. May the Blessed Lord enfold "Paddy" in His loving embrace and reward him for being such a good and faithful Catholic each Sunday. With prayerful and heartfelt sympathy, Fr. Peter Burkauskas (Pastor of St. Andrew's Church)

Thank you Father Peter for you kind words about my dad. He loved coming to your church every Sunday when he was able to get there.

“Dad I am still in shock that you are no longer here with us. I am a basket of emotions. I just want you to know that you were loved my many and you have also touched so many peoples lives. I am so happy that I spoke to you the night because you passed and had the chance to tell you I love you. The only thing that is making this easier to accept is that you are back home with Nanny & Pop and your siblings. Christmas Eve & St Patrick’s Day will never be the same again. Those were the two holidays that no matter what we celebrated together. I am so glad that Madison got to spend 9 years with you. She really loves her Pop Pop but is extremely sad because she was hoping for you to still come up and spend the night with us. RIP Daddy until we meet again. I love you with all my heart.

“I was very saddened to learn of the sudden passing of my church buddy Mr.McGuigan. (“Chris,call me Pat...). We talked each week at St.Andrew’s church and we just shared some laughs last Sunday. Life is precious. Mr.McGuigan was a great friend to my late Uncle Vince and I know he was there to greet him in heaven. I’m saddened for your loss and I will miss him at church today at St.Andrew’s and always. I will offer my prayers for your family for strength and comfort. Sincerely Christy Muldoon and parents Bob and MaryJane
