“ I moved to Fairmount about twenty years ago. From that time on, Buddy was always ready with a quick joke whenever I walked by. As my family grew, the quick jokes turned into kind words for my daughters. RIP, Buddy and condolences to Patty and all who loved him.

“ He would stand outside Krupas with his tv changer. Then he would change the channel on the tv inside the bar. It would drive Joe Ferry nuts. He was a good guy. Will be missed.
