“ Hey Ralph it's hard to believe it's been a year since your passing. As a child I always believed you to be mean because of your nickname rotten Ralph. When I became an adult, which is questionable I found that nickname to be further from the truth. I loved working on small projects with you around your home. I learned a great deal no matter how many times you called me dumbass. I also learned that sailors cursed for less than you. I can never watch an Eagles game without thinking about you and how you really gave it 2 the neighborhood Eagles fans. Every now and then I could see a slight grin come across your face. I found you to be the perfect example 4 the children of today as a hard worker and a friend's friend.

Although there were many good people involved with Fairmount Sports Association I'll always see the fields and remember your hard work definitely deserving of a field being named in your remembrance. I end this post remembering you as a great man. May your bright light from above Shinedown on your family and friends.
