Tribute Wall

“ I met Dick when I joined Lifesport. He was passionate about fitness and crew and he was so interested that I was training for dragonboat. The second week when I didn't show up he called my cell to see if I was ok. I was so touched. He always made a point to chat with me when I came in and was so genuine. I was heartbroken when Covid struck and the gym closed but always thought about him and his wife when passing by the old location. There will never be another place like it. He made it special. Condolences to his family.
