“ Dear Dad,
On this, the first anniversary of your passing, we remember you in our hearts and in our words, never forgetting to speak your name or tell someone a story about our great Dad. You are always with us, please continue to watch over us and guide us with Mom too. You would have never understood this year of 2020 and we are blessed we had the time we spent with you. We have lost so many dear Fairmount friends and legends this year and we remember them also as we cherish your memory always.
Proud to call you Dad, forever.
Love, Christy #5

“ Remembering you Dad on Veteran's day tomorrow and with every waking moment. You were always so proud to wear your Army hat, fly your flag and represent our country. We, in turn, were so proud of you for the love you had for mom and us and for your service. We thank you always and miss you deeply. Your flag will fly tomorrow and I pray you are looking down over us always. 🙏

“ Dear Dad,
A new year starts today without you by our sides. Our hearts are heavy but we have been supported by so many family and friends. You were my NY eve midnight partner but I couldn't do it last night without you and went up early. You would have loved the crowds that showed up to pay respects and share memories on Saturday during your send off. We knew you were loved and popular, but wow, lines outside on Spring Garden St! It was beautiful. I hope you are having a hot cup of tea and a bowl of Honey Nut Cheerios as you guide us through this New Year and new decade. We are missing you immensely and helping each other through this tremendous loss. What a legacy you left with us. We love you today and forever! Rest easy knowing you did great!
