

Thomas P. Hare

October 29, 1950 - January 15, 2023

Hare, Thomas P. "Pee Wee", 72 of Fairmount section of Philadelphia. Went to heaven on January 15, 2023. He was predeceased by his parents, James and Bernadette Hare, his brother, Michael Hare, and step-brother, James Hare. He is survived by his brother, William (Helen), and sisters, Ann Marie "Nancy" Bruski (Joseph), Bernadette Gibbons (Mickey), Janice Hare "Boo" and many nieces, nephews and grandnephews.

Pee Wee was a lifelong Fairmounter and dog-lover. He was an avid Phillies fan who loved spending his Sunday afternoons drinking his beer and cheering his Phillies team on. Most Fairmounters would recognize Pee Wee as he strolled the streets, sipping his coffee and smoking his cigarettes in his bathrobe.

Relatives and friends may pay their respects at St. Francis Xavier Church (The Oratory), 24th & Green Streets, on Tuesday morning, January 24th, 2023 from 9:30am to 10:30am, followed by Mass at 10:30am. His interment will be at Holy Sepulchre in Cheltenham, PA. In lieu of flowers, contributions will be welcome in his name to the Pennsylvania SPCA.

“ Wee would come on Saturdays to watch boxing at McKeevers. He knew every Irish boxer and offered them his vocal support. He was a character in today's world we need more characters. Sorry for his families loss.

“ The man was a legend in Fairmount, practically everyone knew him. Me and Pee Wee grew up together, played half ball, block ball as kids, then hung out on the corner together on 24th St, then ran the streets to all hours of the night when older. His parents worked some Saturdays, so in the winter, we and some other friends used to gather at his house , watch some football and college basketball and have a few beers, as his sisters walked through the house laughing at us. Good times back then. We even worked together at First Pennsy for awhile. So I was so sorry to hear about this. Very sad. RIP my Friend.

Growing up in the sixties life was simple we all grew up together and backed each other up. There is not enough room to say about PeeWee, which when I think about Fairmount, he was Fairmount. Rest in Peace Brother, Toosh
