“ Dear Linda, I am deeply saddened to hear of your loss and I am holding you in my prayers and heart. I remember how special the bond of love was between you and Tom as I reflect back to happy memories during a trip to Barbados and also down the shore. I cannot imagine the loss you feel at this time, but I will continue to pray that you will find peace and comfort. Please take care of yourself. Allison Pollack

“ Many years ago i shared a house down the shore with Tom and Linda and some others and more than once i was awakened on a Saturday or Sunday morning by the sounds of Tom and Linda arguing over words as they dueled to the death over Scrabble. I quickly renamed the sessions as Squabble and we all laughed.

Many years later my husband and I took Bridge lessons from Tom and Linda at the Bala Golf Club and it was like Squabble all over again. Some things never change.

Rest In Peace, Tom

“ Tom and I shared many an intense conversation over the years over many topics, mainly cultural and political, and I was always captivated byf his intelligence and wit. He never pulled his punches and always gave as good as he got. I treasured his take on events of all sorts. I truly will miss him. God Bless Tom Smith.

“ Tom was my morning buddy at Silvers, Langsam & Weitzman. We both arrived early to start our day (and enjoyed the quiet while it lasted) Tom shared his wealth of knowledge with me and I enjoyed our many talks as well as what what I learned from him. He will be missed by me very much.
