“ You loved each of your children with a precious love that never doubted for one second that any of us did anything wrong. Your love was (and still is) pure of heart and in your eyes, we were the best kids, even when we didn't behave. I am positive your prayers for each one of us every single day kept us in God's graces.

I love you and miss you so much, my dear beautiful mommy, from the physical sense that I won't ever be able to talk with you in person or give you a hug again. And I know too that your spirit is eternal, alive and happy in heaven where you are enjoying a big, big, big party now.

God blessed me greatly when you birthed me into this life and I know you are blessed beyond measure now in heaven. You also instilled your deep faith in God into me. Therefore, I want to remember these words from an anonymous quotation whenever I think of you:

*"Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there. I do not sleep.....
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I did not die.."*

Thank you for your love and being the best mother I could have ever have had. Your unconditional love lives on in my heart forever.
