William Brian Delp known to family and friends as "Brian," passed away suddenly on February 14, 2021 at the age of 45.

Although born at Grandview Hospital Sellersville, PA, he was a native to Lansdale, PA. “ I miss you so much already smirndog. I have so many memories that I could post but I'm going to go with the first bit of advice you gave me as an electrician. "Don't fart while putting in an outlet because you'll poop your pants"
The whole story that went along with it was something I'll never forget. You never failed to make us laugh at work. I'm going to miss you making jokes about how I look like beaker the muppet or hearing you yell out "juuuniooooo" you're the only person who could say my name like that without me getting mad haha. I'm really going to miss you smirny. Love you bro.

“ Copart Family purchased the Beautiful in Blue for the family of Mr. William Brian Delp.

Copart Family - February 19, 2021 at 11:44 AM

“ Deepest sympathies to Brian's family. William was the first kid my age I met when my family moved to Lansdale from Horsham in 1982.
We didn't get along very well. He stomped my rabbit traps and broke them. So one day when he got off the bus I shoved him and broke his toy sword. Not a vacation with my bud goes by without that story being told. We will miss you . We love you, Justin and Susan Griffith
